BASIC LIFE SUPPORTING HANDS ON TRAINING

The PG Department of Biochemistry organized a Basic Life Support (BLS) hands-on training session in association with David Multispecialty Hospital on 3rd August 2023. The training was aimed at providing students with essential life-saving skills and knowledge in emergency medical situations. The event was attended by 467 students, who actively participated in the session and gained practical experience in BLS techniques.

The training was conducted by Dr. J. David Vimal Kumar, MBBS, and Dr. Nity Rose David, MBBS, MS in Obstetrics and Gynecology, both esteemed professionals with extensive experience in the medical field. Dr. Vimal Kumar and Dr. Nity Rose David provided detailed instructions on the importance of Basic Life Support and demonstrated the key procedures involved, including CPR (Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation) and other vital techniques for managing medical emergencies.

The hands-on training session allowed students to practice the techniques under the supervision of the medical professionals, ensuring that they understood how to respond effectively in critical situations. The trainers emphasized the significance of quick action and proper techniques in saving lives, helping students gain the confidence needed to perform BLS in real-life emergencies.

Throughout the session, students had the opportunity to ask questions and clarify doubts. Dr. Vimal Kumar and Dr. Nity Rose David answered all queries comprehensively, further enhancing the students' understanding of the BLS procedures. The interactive nature of the training session encouraged active participation and allowed students to practice the skills they had learned.

In conclusion, the Basic Life Support hands-on training session was a great success. The students left the session with a solid understanding of BLS techniques and the confidence to apply them in emergencies. ### PG DEPARTMENT OF BIOCHEMISTRY

REPORT

AWARENESS PROGRAMME ON ACUPUNCTURE(24.08.2023)

The Department of Biochemistry at Islamiah Women's Arts and Science College organized an awareness programme on acupuncture as part of its academic activities. The event took place on 24th August 2023 in the Seminar Hall at 11:00 AM. 153 biochemistry students from various academic years attended the session, actively participating in the discussions and learning from the expert.

The session was led by Mr. Abdur Rahim Salih, B.E., the founder of V5 Innovations and the GV Institute of Acupuncture & TCM Treatment Center in Chennai. He is an expert in acupuncture and provided an in-depth presentation on the subject. During his talk, Mr. Salih elaborated on the different aspects of acupuncture, including its techniques and therapies such as Sujok therapy and cupping therapy. He also explained the benefits of these therapies in addressing various health issues.

Mr. Salih discussed how acupuncture can be particularly helpful for treating a variety of pain conditions, including back and neck pain, knee pain, postoperative pain, and migraines. He emphasized the therapeutic benefits of acupuncture, noting that it can also help individuals feel relaxed and energized. By stimulating specific points on the body, acupuncture aims to improve overall health and well-being. This explanation allowed the students to gain a comprehensive understanding of the practice and its applications.

A total of 153 students actively participated in the session, engaging with the resource person and asking insightful questions. Mr. Salih took the time to answer each question thoroughly, further enhancing the students' understanding of acupuncture and its potential benefits. The students were particularly appreciative of the interactive nature of the session, which allowed them to clarify their doubts and deepen their knowledge of this ancient healing practice.

In conclusion, the awareness programme on acupuncture was a resounding success. The students left the session with a much better understanding of acupuncture's role in healthcare. The informative and engaging nature of the session made it a valuable learning experience for the students, and they expressed their gratitude for the knowledge gained. The session ended on a positive note, with students feeling more informed about acupuncture and its therapeutic potential.
