SELF DEFENCE

Our college student to conduct free silambam class to Self-defense is the act of protecting oneself from physical harm or danger. It involves using various techniques, strategies, and tactics to defend against an attacker or potential threat. Self-defense is not only about physical fighting, but also about being aware of one's surroundings, trusting one's instincts, and taking steps to avoid potentially dangerous situations.

HUMAN RIGHTS

(For all PG Degree Courses)

Course Objectives

1. Human Rights are the rights of all Human Beings. They have universal application. Awareness about Human Rights and concern for its protection has become an important issue after the second world war and paved way for world Nations to come together for acceptance of Universal Declaration of Human Rights.
2. The role of UN in protecting and promoting awareness of Human Rights is highly significant. The binding nature of the International Conventions and Covenants are still a dilemma. The persuasive force in case of violation of human rights by International community is an area of concern. In the absence of National legislations enforcement of these rights remain as one farce.
3. To trace the development of regional instruments drafted aiming at protection of Human Rights and its enforceability.
4. The Indian perspective of protection of Human Rights vide its Legislations , the Constitution of India more read by its language, the Fundamental rights, Duties and Directive Principles of the State Policy has been elicited. The response shown by Indian judiciary and the expression of judicial activism is highlighted. The development of Human Rights jurisprudence in India is traced.
5. The Special legislations and the enforcement machineries remain as a watch dog in the due enforcement of Human Rights in India. The duty to protect human right of all individuals more particularly those are vulnerable remains more as a National obligation. The course intents to evaluate the Redressal mechanisms practiced in India.

"NATIONAL INTESTINE WORM CONTROL AWARENESS" - 09-02-2024

REPORT

On February 9, 2024, the National Service Scheme (NSS) organised "National Intestine Worm Control Awareness" program in the Auditorium of Islamiah Women's Arts and Science College in Vaniyambadi. This initiative aimed to educate and raise awareness among students about the importance of intestinal worm control for maintaining overall health and well-being. A total of 88 NSS students, along with the NSS Coordinator and dedicated NSS members, actively participated in this enlightening program.

From 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM, participants engaged in interactive session with the NSS Coordinator of NSS, Ms. E. MALA. They learned about the causes, symptoms, prevention, and treatment of intestinal worm infections, as well as the importance of personal hygiene and sanitation practices in preventing their spread. Through this program, the NSS students educated with essential knowledge about public health. Totally 88 Vitamin tablets have been distributed by E. MALA (Dept of Tamil), NSS Co-ordinator to all the students.

As participants departed the Auditorium, they carried with them a deeper understanding of intestinal worm control and a renewed commitment to promoting health and well-being among their peers.
