A REPORT

DATE: 25/02/2023

PLACE: KAVALUR OBSERVATORY

Department of English planned a field trip to Kavalur Observatory with 12 PG students and 2 staff members visited on 25/02/2023, the outcome of the visit is a part of the syllabus and students benefited and enquired about the second largest satellite in the India level. It is located in Kavalur in the Javadi Hills, near Vaniyambadi. Observation began in 1968 with 38cm telescope with 40-hectare forest land, The observatory is at an altitude of 725m above mean sea level. The trip was very useful and students gathered necessary data's and information regarding as a part of the field trip. The students submitted their separate field study report in account of their findings.
