ABOUT THE WEDP

The Women Entrepreneurship Development Programme aims to empower women entrepreneurs in developing countries and supporting them in starting and growing their businesses to contribute to greater gender equality, as well as to more job creation and economic development. The programme works with service providers promoting entrepreneurship development (financial, nonfinancial, public, private, associative, freelance etc.) and builds their capacity to better support women entrepreneurs to start and grow their business for a period of 4 weeks. and working with Governments and policymakers to remove the specific gender barriers that women entrepreneurs may face.

This Programme is sponsored by

The screenshot shows a Google Meet window with a presentation slide titled "IPR - Branches". The slide features a central image of a Coca-Cola bottle with arrows pointing to various intellectual property rights: TRADEMARK (on the label), PATENT (on the bottle cap), TRADE SECRET (on the bottle body), TRADE DRESS (on the bottle shape), and DESIGN PATENT (on the bottle label). On the left side of the slide, there is a vertical bar with "Cases" and "Introduction" written vertically. On the right side, there is another vertical bar with "Branches" and "Intro.." written vertically. The Google Meet interface shows the presenter's name "Leeladharan Manavalan" and a chat window on the right with messages from participants.

The screenshot shows a Google Meet window with a presentation slide titled "Levels of Plagiarism". The slide text reads: "Plagiarism would be quantified into following levels in ascending order of severity for the purpose of its definition:" followed by a list of four levels: Level 0 (Similarities up to 10%), Level 1 (Similarities above 10% to 40%), Level 2 (Similarities above 40% to 60%), and Level 3 (Similarities above 60%). On the right side of the slide, there is a vertical bar with "UGC", "Cases", "Branches", and "Intro.." written vertically. The Google Meet interface shows the presenter's name "Leeladharan Manavalan" and a chat window on the right with messages from participants.
