Suggestion:

It is suggested that the students should be further encouraged and programs within college should be conducted more frequently to provide a wider range of opportunities for students' development in extra-curricular activities.

Conclusion:

From the above feedback taken from the students, it is inferred that students are satisfied by the effective delivery of curriculum in an innovative and creative manner. They have shown great interest in the conduct and participation of extra and co-curricular activities apart from certificate courses. The curriculum prescribed proved to be effective in enhancing their life skills and knowledge. The teachers act as a scaffold in thoroughly developing the personality of the students in every aspect.
