REPORT

By forging a symbiotic alliance between physical prowess and self-defence tactics under the visionary guidance of KYOSHI, Dr. H. Balachandar, the pioneering initiative emerged on July 17, 2018, heralding a new era in Women's Personal Security. Around 50 students took part in this program. This groundbreaking endeavour seamlessly amalgamates the rich heritage of Goju-Isshin Kai Karate Do with contemporary methodologies, fostering a comprehensive shield of protection. Embracing the ethos of discipline and technique inherent in traditional Martial Arts, it champions the cultivation of agility, fortitude, and mental acuity as pillars of Empowerment. With an unwavering focus on practical self-defence strategies, it equips women with the tools needed to navigate the complexities of modern-day challenges confidently. Beyond mere physical training, this commendable effort instils a profound sense of resilience and self-assurance, transcending the confines of mere technique to nurture a holistic approach to personal safety. Through meticulous instruction and unwavering support, it cultivates a community where women are not just participants but architects of their own safety. As the ripple effects of this initiative spread far and wide, it serves as a beacon of hope, inspiring countless individuals to reclaim their autonomy and stride boldly into the world. In fostering a culture of empowerment and solidarity, it lays the foundation for a safer, more inclusive society, where every woman can thrive without fear or reservation.

VALUE ADDED COURSE ON TAILORING – AADHI INSTITUTE

REPORT

The Interior Design & Decor Department arranged a Value Added Course on Tailoring, spanning a comprehensive 40-hour training from October 2018 to January 2019 duration for 40 participants. Under the expert guidance of Ms. Sumathi, a seasoned professional in the field renowned for her expertise, the course delved into a spectrum of essential tailoring skills, encompassing fabric selection, pattern making, sewing techniques, and garment finishing. The diverse participant cohort contributed to an interactive learning environment, fostering collaboration and skill-sharing. Upon course completion, participants were conferred certificates, symbolizing their dedication and newly acquired expertise. Exceptionally positive feedback from attendees underscored the course's efficacy in content delivery and the invaluable mentorship provided by Ms. Sumathi.
