Date: 23rd December 2024

The Placement and Career Guidance Cell of Islamiah Women's Arts and Science College, Vaniyambadi, organized a Career Guidance Program on 23rd December 2024 in the college seminar hall. The session was specially arranged for the final year students to prepare them for competitive examinations and their future career pursuits.

The session was graced by the esteemed Chief Guest Mr. Immanuel. S, Branch Manager, Veranda Race Institute, Vellore. He delivered an insightful and motivating talk on the topic “Result-Oriented Strategy for Competitive Examinations.” His guidance was well-received by the students, who found his practical tips and structured approach extremely useful for exams like TNPSC, SSC, Banking, and other government job tests.

Around 150 final year students from various departments actively participated in the program. Mr. Immanuvel highlighted the importance of goal setting, time management, focused preparation, regular practice, and mock tests. He also shared real-time examples of successful candidates and emphasized the significance of self-discipline and consistency in cracking competitive exams.

The session concluded with an interactive Q&A session, where students clarified their doubts regarding exam preparation strategies, available resources, and career planning. The event was highly beneficial and encouraged students to start early and stay committed to their goals.

The Placement and Career Guidance Cell extends heartfelt thanks to Mr. Immanuvel. S for his valuable time and inspiring session, and to the college management for their continuous support in empowering students through such initiatives.
